

ROYAL Baking Powder

is the greatest of modern-time helps to perfect cake and biscuit making. Makes home baking pleasant and profitable. It renders the food more digestible and guarantees it safe from alum and all adulterants.

ODELL

While working with a donkey engine on the mountain south of Odell last Friday C. B. Covert was injured. Mr. Covert is in the employ of the company operating a saw mill at the point mentioned. Mrs. Covert and the children went up Sunday to be near and care for him.

Twin sons were born to Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Lewis last week. One of the little ones lived but a short time. The other is living at this time, and Mrs. Lewis, whose condition has been very serious, is improving. Mr. Lewis' mother came up from Portland and remained until Monday. Mrs. Ledyard, Mrs. Lewis' mother, was at the coast and she returned to her home in Portland and came up Sunday. She will remain for several weeks.

Invitations have been issued to men over 18 years of age to attend a social hygiene meeting for men only to be held in the school house next Friday evening. While the committee in charge strives to reach every man by invitation it is the desire of those interested that all who are eligible attend whether they receive a personal invitation or not. Several speakers will be present and the questions usually touched upon at such meetings will receive attention.

The mothers of the Parent-Teachers' association will meet at the home of Mrs. E. O. Dutro at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon. A special program and question box, followed by a social hour will be featured in the afternoon. The committee in charge extends a cordial invitation to all ladies over 18 years of age to attend.

A gold brooch set with brilliants was lost about two weeks ago. This brooch was worn at the Union church and is supposed to have been lost there. Finder will please notify Mrs. L. A. E. Clark.

Mrs. Emil Schiller has been in poor health and Sunday she was taken to the hospital in Hood River for treatment.

L. A. E. Clark left Sunday for a trip which will include The Dalles, St. Paul, and Pendleton. He goes on business.

J. Boggs Dodd, D. D., who speaks in the interest of the second World's Christian Citizenship Conference to be held in Portland June 29 to July 6, delivered a strong address in the Methodist church at Odell last Sunday morning. Dr. Dodd travels under the auspices of the National Reform Association and he urges earnest thought and the placing of men whose characters are above reproach in the positions of trust in civil life that our nation may stand as she should stand, a model for all nations.

The annual school meeting will be held in the school house next Monday at 2 p. m. A director to serve three years and a clerk to serve one year are to be elected and the business usual at such meetings transacted.

Children's Day will be observed at the Union church next Sunday morning with a suitable program. Rev. Hargreaves is announced for the evening.

The Methodist church is specially favored next Sunday, as Rev. W. B. Young, of Hood River, will speak in the morning and Rev. O. H. Perry, of Sunnyside, Wash., in the evening. Both are strong men and fine speakers and we are glad to be able to announce their coming.

Orrie Cushman expects to attend the rose festival in Portland this week.

The June meeting of the Ferguson Bible class will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Ferguson Thursday, this evening. The committee in charge has planned for a program and social and a general good time is expected.

The strawberry harvest is now on in Odell. Berries are of fine quality, help not as plentiful as might be desired. Messrs. Kimball, Wheeler, Lafferty, Wenhinger, Clark, Cutler, Duckwall are those about Odell who have fields of berries. There are also some fine berries grown just above Odell in Willow Flat.

Miss Alberta Warner will attend the rose festival in Portland this week and will meet relatives who are coming to spend the summer with Miss Warner and her brother, W. R. Warner.

WINANS CITY

W. K. Brisco, who has been working at the Westerburg ranch, left last Thursday for Portland, where he will remain for the rose festival.

Ray Eicholtz spent Sunday and Monday in Portland.

D. L. Rountree, of the Rountree ranch was a Hood River visitor last Thursday.

Mrs. Fred O. Kramer, with little son, Wilson George, of Burlington, Ia., arrived last Friday to spend the summer with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Wilson, of Orchard City, Kan.

Dale Myers, who is working in this district, spent Sunday at his home in Odell.

The many friends in this vicinity of Miss Rose Copley were greatly surprised to learn of her marriage. Miss Rose Copley, of Des Moines, and Tom Matthews, of Dallas, Oregon, were married June 3. The wedding took place in Hood River at 9 a. m. Mr. and Mrs. Matthews left on the noon train for their home in Dallas, Ore. They have the congratulations and best wishes of their friends.

Big reduction sale on all trimmed hats. One-fourth off on black shapes. Gibson Sisters.

PINE GROVE

There will be no preaching at the church next Sunday morning. Rev. Carson goes to Odell, it being the third Sunday.

The Amicus club meet with Mrs. John Mohr this week. At their last meeting they voted to give their share toward furnishing the new library building in Hood River with chairs.

At W. C. T. U. flower mission day held with Mrs. Jarvis last Thursday afternoon the superintendent, Mrs. Mabel Lage, furnished a good report of work done, having distributed several bouquets of flowers to the sick and those shut in.

Miss Jessie of Spokane, who has been visiting Mr. Blackman's people, left for her home Saturday afternoon.

Miss Margaret Hindle, from Spokane, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Andrews this week.

Miss Jessie Turney ate dinner with Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Mark Sunday.

Mr. Wuest, from Portland, is spending some time with Mrs. O. H. Hill, and looking after his farming interests.

A little son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Joe Vannier last Monday morning.

The Children's Day exercises at the church last Sunday morning were very interesting, several of the older ones assisting. The children of Ben Lage were presented for baptism. The ordinance was administered by the pastor, Rev. Carson. The grade roll exercises conducted by Mrs. Jennie MacDonald were specially attractive.

The children of Dr. and Mrs. Jenkins are spending a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Lage.

VAN HORN

Ada Laraway is ill with measles.

Mrs. G. L. Smith went to Willow Flat the first of the week to spend some time with Mrs. O. H. Hill.

The annual meeting of school district No. 7 will occur at the school building on Monday afternoon, June 16, at two o'clock.

Children's Day was observed at the church on June 8. The class of senior boys and girls had charge of the decorations and their work was well done. Evergreens, roses and peonies were used in profusion. The children rendered a very good program and the good attendance was in attendance. The educational offering by the school amounted to $6.40.

Miss Lelia Radford was one of a party of six from Hood River who spent Sunday at Multnomah Falls.

On Saturday evening Miss Adice Freeman returned home from Corvallis, where she has been in school during the past year.

The Workers' Training class of the Sunday school met at the church on Thursday evening. A small number were out but the meeting was interesting.

At the next meeting R. H. Waugh will have charge of the lesson hour. In addition to this there will be a discussion of some live topics helpful to all interested in better Sunday school work.

Miss Jessie Turney leaves this week for Portland. A sister who is in school at Eugene will meet her there and after a few days they will start for their home in Wisconsin.

Mr. Andrews was ill all of last week and not able to be at his place of business.

Church notices: Sunday school at 10 a. m. No preaching at 11, but at 7:45 in the evening.

BARRETT.

The Ladies' Aid of the Valley Christian church will give an ice cream social on the church lawn Thursday evening, June 12. Everybody invited.

Guy Crapper returned home from Portland Saturday where he has been a patient in St. Vincent's hospital for the past month.

Miss Maud Hasbrouck has as her guest Miss Wright, of Portland.

Relatives of Mrs. J. C. Diamond who have recently come from the east have rented the Nunamaker place on Portland way for a short time.

Mrs. Jennie Smith and three grandchildren arrived last Thursday from Des Moines, Iowa, to spend the summer with Mrs. Smith's daughter, Mrs. E. W. Sweeney.

An uncle of Mr. Sweeney's from Missouri, stopped off for a few days' visit, enroute to Seattle to visit Mr. Sweeney's father.

T. A. Reavis and daughter, Gladys, went to Portland Sunday to attend the funeral of William Reavis, who died Saturday.

Mrs. Dr. Mills expects her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Patterson, to stop for a few days' visit the last of the week, on their way from Pullman, Wash., to Eugene, where they will reside in the future.

Berry pickers are very much needed in Barrett.

BELMONT.

Mrs. H. J. Wood, of Grand View, Wash., wife of Rev. Wood, formerly pastor of Belmont M. E. church, came Tuesday and visited at the Church and Stout homes, going Sunday to the home of Miss Emma Jones in Barrett, where she will stay and rest as she is not in the best of health. We sincerely hope the change of climate will be of benefit and she will be restored to health.

Mrs. Montgomery and two little daughters, of Portland, visited last week at the home of her nephew and niece, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Isenberg, returning to her home Monday.

Mrs. E. W. McAllister had a serious accident last week and is nursing a broken rib.

Mrs. Somerville was a dinner guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stout and Misses Vera and Laura O'Neil Sunday.

Miss Lida Jones came from Portland Saturday evening and spent Sunday with her parents returning, Sunday evening.

J. R. Nunamaker went to Heppner Friday on business. Ray Nicholson is home for his summer vacation. Ray is a student at O. A. C. His many friends are glad to see him.

Floyd and Donald Nunamaker are home from their different schools. The boys came in picking to help out in the strawberry picking. Pickers are scarce this year.

Mrs. Marney will drill the children in their parts for children's day exercises. Children's Day program will be in July at Belmont church, owing to every one being busy this month with their strawberries.

We are glad to hear Miss Jessie Rugg is enjoying better health on the ranch than she did in Belmont.

Mrs. J. R. Nunamaker, Mrs. Downing and Ellen Downing were visiting Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Will Farrell.

Rumors are in the air of a double wedding to be in the near future. One wedding makes many.

There will be preaching at Belmont next Sunday morning and evening. Also Sunday school and Epworth League. Preaching service in the evening at 8 p. m.

Miss Lou Rakestraw terminated his visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Stout and returned to her home at Carson, Wash., Saturday.

George Ledford will be leader of the League services next Sunday evening.

VALLEY CREST

Arthur C. Sallenbach returned home the first of the week after spending several days in Portland.

Mrs. Edgar Shockly is attending the rose festival and visiting with relatives in Portland.

Mrs. Henry Hardman spent the past week the past week visiting relatives in Hood River.

Avon Sutton has returned from his year's work at O. A. C.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Simmons spent the week end in Hood River.

Mr. Buchanan arrived from California Saturday and will assist Eugene Ewuer with his work during the summer.

Mrs. Anna K. Baker has returned home from Portland where she was attending to business the past week.

Miss Pearl Hoover left Friday for Portland to visit relatives and see the carnival.

Messrs. J. O. Hannum and Sam McConnell are spending the week in Portland.

Henry Hardman returned home from Canada Saturday and is planning to return there with his family soon.

HEIGHTS NEWS

Mrs. E. W. Dark and children returned Thursday from eastern Oregon, where they have been visiting friends and relatives.

Roy Hill and family, of The Dalles, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Hill, of the Heights.

Mrs. Huggins and children, who now reside in Salem, are spending a few days here.

Miss Jennie Edgington will return Friday to Berkeley, Calif., where she will resume her studies in the University of California.

The W. R. C. ladies met with Mrs. Littlefield last week. A good time was reported, but not so many in attendance owing to the pioneers' meeting at Mrs. Bert Stranahan's the same day. Many of the members were there.

On Saturday, June 14th, there will be several initiated into the Woman's Relief Corps. All members are requested to be present and bring something good to eat. Cake and coffee will be served and a good social time afterward. Everyone come.

Charles Gill returned Tuesday from a fishing trip over in Washington, with a well filled basket of trout. He went in company with several others.

Mr. and Mrs. Multishaw, of Vancouver, B. C., are visiting Mrs. O. L. Stranahan. Mrs. Multishaw is a granddaughter of Mrs. Stranahan. They are on their way to Los Angeles, Calif.

Miss Edith Gill has reached her destination, Fort Bayard, New Mexico, safely. She was very sick while in San Francisco, which delayed her trip several days. She stopped at the Grand Canyon, Colo., and reports it a wonderful place.

Mrs. Shrum came up from Portland for a few days. She is taking treatment there and reports that she is much better and gaining right along.

UNDERWOOD.

Mr. and Mrs. Dexter and children, of White Salmon, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Hamlin at Skookum orchards Sunday.

Mrs. I. Fogel, of Portland has been visiting at the Morrow-Packard orchards as the guest of Mrs. P. I. Packard.

Mrs. W. G. Detwiller and little daughter, Jane, spent a few days with Mrs. Sarah A. Hedrick last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gibbs, of Wallace, Idaho, will spend some time on their ranch here.

Mrs. S. E. V. Weber is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Wm. M. Rafter, of White Salmon.

Harry Stickney was in Portland for several days last week.

George Hewett went to Portland Monday expecting to be gone several weeks there.

Mrs. Leslie Berry and two children from Iowa are here visiting Mrs. Berry's mother, Mrs. Sarah A. Hedrick.

W. M. Kollock spent Tuesday of last week in Stevenson, Wash.

Hunter Vinton left Saturday for Portland.

The new home of Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Marsh is now completed and they will soon move into it.

A wedding dinner was given by Mrs. P. I. Packard last Friday evening for Mr. and Mrs. Mallard Scott Davis. The table was decorated with pink and white peonies. Mrs. Davis is the niece of Mrs. Packard and became the bride of Mr. Davis Wednesday, May 28.

Oak Grove School Meeting

The annual meeting of the Oak Grove school district will be held next Monday afternoon, June 16, at the assembly hall of the new school building. H. M. Francis, district clerk.

MOSIER.

Mrs. Hazel Goodwin and child, of Stevenson, Wash., are visiting Mrs. M. Harlan and family.

Mr. and Mrs. John McNeil and Miss Laureta McNeil spent several days in Mosier last week, returning to Portland the last of the week to enjoy the rose festival.

J. H. and Howard Barnum, of Clinton, Iowa, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Cummings.

Miss Edna Wilson returned to her home in Portland this week.

Mrs. Dick Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Evans and Lee and Ira Evans attended the wedding of Miss Selma Vickers in The Dalles Wednesday, June 5, to Prof. Walter Bargar, of Aberdeen, Wash.

Dr. Small and Ed Jasper returned Wednesday from a few days' stay in Portland.

Mrs. Emma Taylor, of Amity, spent a few days here with her sister, Mrs. David Robinson.

J. E. Cole went to Portland Wednesday to be with his wife who returned Sunday to the hospital there for further treatment.

Mrs. W. E. Chown and Mrs. J. R. Wilcox were in Hood River Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Bessie Neuman, of Portland, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. V. C. Young. H. M. Parry, of Chicago, Ill., came this week to spend some time with R. D. Chatfield and family.

J. M. Elliott and N. P. Sturgess left Thursday for a week's stay in Portland.

Mrs. G. Godbersen and Miss Dorothy went to The Dalles Friday for a few days' stay.

Miss A. Godbersen came home Sunday from Hood River.

Mrs. J. Mead and son are visiting in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Harve and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. McCargar left during the week for the rose carnival.

H. G. Kibbee and E. J. Thrift returned home from jury duty in The Dalles Thursday.

Mrs. E. L. Root returned home Thursday from Seattle, accompanied by her sister, Miss Jessie Kent, who will spend a week or so here before returning to her work.

Bernie Nichol and Jack Lelliott left the first of the week to see the rose carnival in Portland.

The local lodge of I. O. O. F., observed their memorial day Sunday, by marching in a body to the cemetery and decorating the graves with beautiful flowers.

Anniversary services were held at the Immanuel church Sunday at the evening hour. Children's Day exercises were given with a program.

Work has commenced at the rock crusher location on Rock creek.

WHITE SALMON.

(From the Enterprise)

At the Commercial club meeting Monday night the report of the Portland engineers who made the survey for the proposed tramway up the hill was read. The cost was estimated at approximately $38,000 for the tramway and about $35,000 for a six per cent wagon road. The matter was held up by the club for further consideration.

W. M. Rafter's hardware store was entered by a burglar, Sunday morning about 2 o'clock, who succeeded in partially emptying the store of revolvers, razors and other valuable merchandise and getting as far as the alley with the plunder. Here he was discovered by Night Officer Hawn, who ordered him to halt. Instead of stopping, the thief started to run. Hawn fired three shots at him and the burglar took two shots at Hawn in return.

Sidney Boddingshouse was married on the 27th of May to Miss Ruth Doris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Doris at their residence Casa de Rosas, Phoenix, Arizona. Mr. and Mrs. Boddingshouse left immediately on an extended wedding tour of Willmette, Illinois, where the young couple will spend some time, also at Bass Lake, Michigan, the Boddingshouse residence and summer home. On the return trip they will travel by the Canadian Pacific and visit different places of interest up the Columbia to White Salmon, thence to Phoenix where Mr. Boddingshouse will have charge of one of Mr. Doris's large ranches.

OAK GROVE PEOPLE
PLAN ENTERTAINMENT

The people of Oak Grove district are planning for a big entertainment next Wednesday evening, when a number of the young folks of the district will present "A Kentucky Belle" at the assembly hall of the new Oak Grove school. The cast has been trained by Mrs. Louise Hayden, well known here and in Portland for her work as an elocution teacher. The program is as follows:

Piano Solo, "Veil Dance," Rudolph Prime.

Time—Present.

Place—Blue Grass Region of Kentucky.

Act 1. Sitting room in home of Miss Mariah Douglas.

Vocal music by popular Hood River talent.

Act 2. Same as Act 1. Four weeks later.

Piano selections from Grand Opera "Luzia Borgia," Mrs. Louise Boyd.

Act 3. Same as Act 2, Monday morning following.

Cast of Characters: Miss Mariah Douglas, a maiden lady with aristocratic tendencies, Anna Sutton.

Isabel Douglas, niece of Miss Mariah, with democratic tendencies, Bessie Stranahan.

Marie Van Harlinger, friend of Isabel, Hilja Hukari.

Goldie W. McMillen, suitor to Isabel, Arvo Hukari.

John Cason Gordon, alias Jack Cason, a wealthy student of sociology, John Stanton.

Dr. Make a middle aged practitioner, Grant Palmer.

Miss Madden, a trained nurse, Vera Gano.

Mrs. Gordon, mother of John Cason Gordon, Alberta Sutton.

Miss Gordon, sister of John Cason Gordon, Helen Sutton.

Three telephone linemen, Messrs. Toivo Annala, Arvi Annala, Ratto Annala.

Cindy, negro maid, Alice McCurdy.

Henry, negro boy, engaged to Cindy, Paul Lancaster.

Friends of Marie Van Harlinger: Elma Annala, Hilja Annala, Helen Sutton, Katherine Skinner, Eva Annala.

Call for Bids

Bids will be received by the Clerk of School District No. 3, until June 12, 1913, for 165 cords of 4-foot alash wood to be delivered at the three schoolhouses.
H. A. MacDonald, Clerk.
June 12, 1102 Prospect Ave., Telephone 1541.

FRANZ'S THINNING SHEARS

HAVE CIRCLED THE WORLD

25c & 35c

And the Equal of any Dollar Shear. Tested Steel Blades.

25c & 35c

We have shipped them to every foreign country as well as to every state in the Union—5th Season—order yours today.

LET UNCLE SAM

DO IT!

Are you utilizing the Parcel Post as you might? Don't wait till you come to town! Just phone for anything you may need and Franz will see that it goes out on the next post. A box of tacks or a garden hoe. A package of seed or a roll of poultry netting. A thousand and one of the little daily wants may be supplied in this way.

Security Ladders

No nails or rivets—all bolts—every step and joint is secured by steel reinforcement.

6 to 14 Feet

Larson Ladders

California Type—a favorite with many.

6 to 14 Feet

Let' be Comfortable at Home. Can't all go to the seashore to spend the hot summer months, but for a fraction of the cost of such a trip, the house and porch can be made mighty "liveable," a Crex Rug, Couch Hammock, Porch Screen, an Ice Cream Freezer, what more could one ask for?

We Are Summer Comfort Specialist

And right now is a good time to do the fixin' up.

= E. A. FRANZ CO. =

WANTED

Men to work in sawmill and yard. Middle Valley mill and at Parkdale. LOCAL MEN PREFERRED AND GIVEN PREFERENCE. Wages, $2.50 and up, according to class of work. Leave your address and phone number with C. F. Gilbert, care of Gilbert Implement Co. j12

E. E. STANTON

General Law and Probate practice. Legal Work of All Kinds. Collections and Insurance. HOOD RIVER OREGON

Notice

In the Circuit Court of Hood River County, Oregon.

In the matter of the Petition of the Board of Directors of East Fork Irrigation District for the judicial examination and judgment of the court as to the regularity and legality of the proceedings for issuing bonds of said district, and other acts affecting said district.

Notice is hereby given that the Board of Directors of